The staffing you asked for

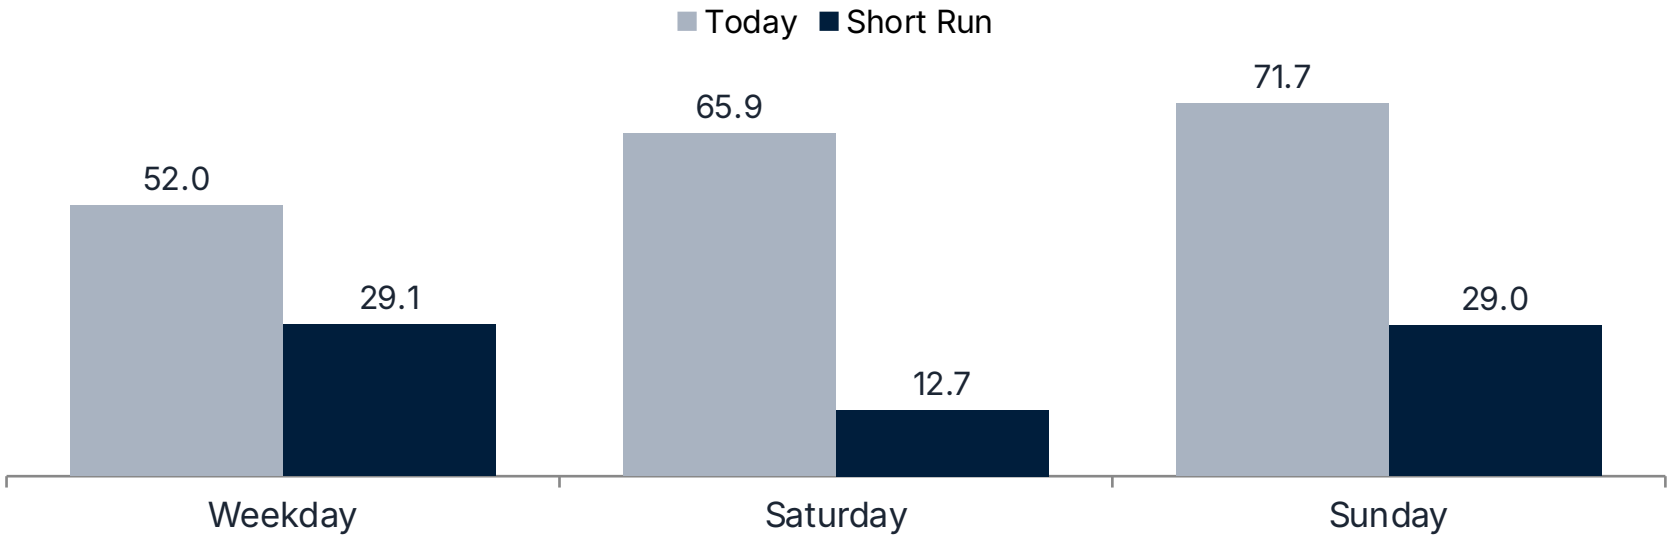

Weekday · Saturday · Sunday

	Today	Short Run
On duty during the day	11–12 · 10 · 8	15 · 14 · 10
At the open (06:20, Sunday 07:15)	4 · 4 · 3	5 · 5 · 4
Still on after 22:00	4 · 2 · 3	7 · 5 · 5
Through to the close	2 · 2 · 3	3 · 3 · 3
Fewest rostered on the floor	2 · 2 · 2	3 · 3 · 3

Every level met on every day — and the ticket office staffed in pairs, including Sundays.

People where the trains are

How far the floor staffing is from the shape of the December timetable — lower is better

Much closer to the December pattern every day. The score: hour by hour, how far staffing sits from the trains; 0 would track them exactly.

People and hours

What it takes to run

	Today	Short Run
People on the link	20	26
Contracted hours a week	35h	35h
Cover weeks (for leave and sickness)	4 in 20 (1 in 5)	5 in 26 (1 in 5.2)

Six more people, 35 hours a week on average; Sunday overtime 83h 30m a week across the link (today 68h 15m).

Fatigue checks

Against the Office of Rail and Road's good-practice list and the rail industry's own checks

	Today	Short Run
Avoidable fatigue warnings, fixed rota	4 (up to 5)	0
Most days in a row (limit 13)	7 (up to 9)	5 (up to 6)
Shortest rest between shifts (limit 12h)	12h 30m	14h 20m
Longest shift	9h 10m	9h 00m

Rest and run limits met with room to spare; no avoidable fatigue warnings in the fixed rota.

Why Short Run?

What all four shortlisted links give, what this one adds, and what it costs

- ✓ All four shortlisted: all 9 December rules and no avoidable fatigue warning
- ✓ All four shortlisted: about 14 full weekends off a year (today 10), at most 5 apart
- ✓ All four shortlisted: no shift over 9 hours, and every closing shift shorter
- ✓ This one adds: five-day runs, the most weeks on one turn, the fewest late finishes
- ✓ 9 of 15 shift times worked today; 6 new, several shorter versions of today's lates
- – Costs: one 42h 30m week (today up to 43h 50m); four weeks off 15 days, not 14

Late finishes: 42 a year each (today 39) — the rules' minimum. The colleague deck shows every cost openly.

What colleagues will notice

The good and the not so good — the colleague presentation shows both

Likely to welcome

- 14 full weekends off a year (today 10)
- At most 5 days in a row, fixed rota (today 7)
- One turn in 18 of 21 weeks (today 7 of 16)
- Every closing shift 30–45 minutes shorter
- 9 of the 15 shift times already worked

Likely to worry about

- Late finishes: 42 a year (today 39)
- 6 new shift times to learn
- Average shift about 2 minutes longer
- Best 14-day leave stretch 28 days, not 30
- Four weeks off needs 15 days' leave, not 14

Expect late finishes to be the first question — the colleague deck answers it openly.

Where it stands

Three things confirmed verbally, two decisions left, two points still open

✓ December rules — confirmed
The nine December rules. Everything here is built on them.

✓ 26 people on the link — confirmed
Six more than today, with five cover weeks.

✓ Sunday cover — confirmed
Ten on a Sunday — Sunday work stays overtime.

? To decide: which link we use
Colleagues' views come first.

? Then: who starts on which line
Who begins on which week. Open: the 13-day limit's written source; the FF19 reading.

Colleagues' views come first; the link is chosen after them, then who starts where.

The detail

- Every week of the link, day by day
- Staff on duty hour by hour, against the trains
- Every December rule and fatigue check, worked through
