People where the trains are

How far the floor staffing is from the shape of the December timetable — lower is better

Much closer to the December pattern on weekdays, Saturday and Sunday.

People and hours

What it takes to run

|                                      | Today           | Familiar Nine   |
|--------------------------------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| People on the link                   | 20              | 24              |
| Contracted hours a week              | 35h             | 35h             |

| People needed each Sunday (overtime) | 8               | 10              |

Four more people, the contract rostered exactly on average — Sundays still rely on overtime.

Fatigue checks

Against the Office of Rail and Road's good-practice list and the rail industry's own checks

|                                          | Today       | Familiar Nine |
|------------------------------------------|-------------|---------------|
| Avoidable fatigue warnings, fixed rota   | 4 (up to 5) | 0             |
| Most days in a row (limit 13)            | 7 (up to 9) | 6             |
| Shortest rest between shifts (limit 12h) | 12h 30m     | 14h 20m       |
| Longest shift                            | 9h 10m      | 9h 00m        |

Rest and run limits met with room to spare; no avoidable fatigue warnings in the fixed rota.

Why Familiar Nine?

It meets the brief while keeping 8 of its 16 shift times familiar

- ✓ Meets all 9 December rules, and all 3 flexible ones
- ✓ A full weekend off one week in four — today one in five
- ✓ Never more than 6 days in a row — today 7
- ✓ 8 of its 16 shift times are worked today
- ✓ No shift over 9 hours, and every closing shift is shorter
- ✓ No avoidable fatigue warnings in the fixed rota

The trade-off: more late finishes — about one extra each every two or three weeks.

What colleagues will notice

The good and the not so good — the colleague presentation shows both

Likely to welcome

- A weekend off one week in four (today one in five)
- At most 6 days in a row (today 7)
- Every closing shift 30–45 minutes shorter
- 8 of the 16 shift times already worked
- Shortest rest 14h 20m (today 12h 30m)

Likely to worry about

- About one extra late finish every 2–3 weeks
- 8 new shift times to learn
- Average shift 6 minutes longer
- Best 14-day leave stretch 28 days, not 30
- Four weeks off takes 15 days' leave at best, not 14

Expect late finishes to be the first question — the colleague deck answers it openly.

Where it stands

Three things confirmed verbally (29 Sep 2026), two decisions left

December rules — confirmed

The nine December rules. Everything here is built on them.

24 people on the link — confirmed

Four more than today.

Sunday cover — confirmed

Ten on a Sunday — Sunday work stays overtime.

To decide: which link we use

Colleagues' views come first.

Then: who starts on which line

Who begins on which week of the link.

The detail

- Every week of the link, day by day
- Staff on duty hour by hour, against the trains
- Every December rule and fatigue check, worked through
