Why Second Wind?

Weekends never more than five weeks apart, and the fewest late finishes the rules allow

- ✓ Meets all 9 December rules, and all 3 flexible ones
- ✓ Seven full weekends off in 26, never more than five weeks apart
- ✓ Never more than 6 days in a row — today 7
- ✓ 9 of its 15 shift times are worked today
- ✓ No shift over 9 hours, and every closing shift is shorter
- ✓ No avoidable fatigue warnings in the fixed rota

The trade-off: three more late finishes a year each (42, today 39) — the rules' minimum.

What colleagues will notice

The good and the not so good — the colleague presentation shows both

Likely to welcome

- 7 weekends off, at most 5 weeks apart
- At most 6 days in a row (today 7)
- Every closing shift 30–45 minutes shorter
- 9 of the 15 shift times already worked
- Shortest rest 14h 20m (today 12h 30m)

Likely to worry about

- Late finishes: 42 a year (today 39)
- 6 new shift times to learn
- Average shift 2 minutes longer
- Best 14-day leave stretch 27 days, not 30
- Four weeks off takes 15 days' leave at best, not 14

Expect late finishes to be the first question — the colleague deck answers it openly.
