Why Familiar Nine?

It meets the brief and keeps as much of today as it can

- ✓ Meets all 9 December staffing rules, and all 3 flexible ones
- ✓ A full weekend off one week in four — today one in five
- ✓ Never more than 6 days in a row — today 9
- ✓ 8 of its 16 shift times are worked today
- ✓ No shift over 9 hours, and every closing shift is shorter
- ✓ No avoidable fatigue warnings

The trade-off: more late finishes — about one extra each every two or three weeks.

What colleagues will notice

The good and the not so good — the colleague presentation shows both

Likely to welcome

- A weekend off one week in four (today one in five)
- At most 6 days in a row (today 9)
- Every closing shift 30–45 minutes shorter
- 8 of the 16 shift times already worked
- Shortest rest 14h20 (today 12h30)

Likely to worry about

- About one extra late finish every 2–3 weeks
- 8 new shift times to learn
- Average shift 6 minutes longer
- Best 14-day leave stretch 28 days, not 30
- Four weeks off takes 15 days' leave, not 14

Expect late finishes to be the first question — the colleague deck answers it openly.

Where it stands

December rules — confirmed
