For managers · from January 2027 · 26 weeks · code MB-26-V10 · the full proposal sheet has the detail

The short version

Four numbers

| 9 of 9 | 35h | 0 | 26 |
|---|---|---|---|
| December staffing rules met | contracted hours a week | avoidable fatigue warnings | people on the link |
| today 4 of 9 | Mon–Sat average | cover weeks aside | today 20 |

Every December staffing rule met — and 30 days off for 14 days' leave, as now.

The staffing you asked for

Each figure reads weekday · Saturday · Sunday

| | Today | Balanced V10 |
|---|---|---|
| On duty each day (Sunday: at least 10) | 11–12 · 10 · 8 | ✓ 15 · 14 · 10 |
| At the open, at least 4 (06:20, Sun 07:15) | 4 · 4 · 3 | ✓ 4 · 5 · 4 |
| Still on duty at 22:00, at least 5 | 4 · 2 · 3 | ✓ 5 · 7 · 5 |
| Through to the close, at least 3 | 2 · 2 · 3 | ✓ 3 · 3 · 3 |
| Fewest on the floor at any time, at least 2 | 2 · 2 · 2 | ✓ 3 · 3 · 3 |

Every level met on every day — and the ticket office staffed in pairs, including Sundays.

People where the trains are

Fit to the trains: floor staff against the December trains, hour by hour — lower is better

Staffing follows the December trains more closely every day — far more at weekends.

People and hours

What it takes to run

| | Today | Balanced V10 |
|---|---|---|
| People on the link | 20 | 26 |
| Contracted hours a week | 35h | 35h |
| Cover weeks (for leave and sickness) | 4 of 20 (20%) | 5 of 26 (19%) |
| People needed each Sunday (overtime) | 8 | 10 |

Six more people, the same 35-hour week — and Sundays are still worked as overtime.

Fatigue checks

Office of Rail and Road and rail-industry good practice — not a fatigue risk assessment

| | Today | Balanced V10 |
|---|---|---|
| Avoidable fatigue warnings, cover weeks aside | 4 (up to 5) | ✓ 0 |
| Most days in a row (limit 13) | 7 (up to 9) | ✓ 5 (up to 6) |
| Shortest rest between shifts (limit 12h) | 12h 30m | ✓ 14h 20m |
| Longest shift, any day | 9h 10m | ✓ 9h 00m |

Rest and days-in-a-row limits met with room to spare. In brackets: the worst case, if a cover week falls badly.

Why Balanced V10?

What it shares with the three shortlisted links, what it adds, and what it costs

- ✓ As all three: all 9 December rules; no avoidable fatigue warning, cover weeks aside
- ✓ As all three: no two closing weeks in a row, cover weeks aside
- ✓ As all three: 30 days off for 14 days' leave, as today
- ✓ As all three: no shift over 9h 00m, and every closing shift shorter
- \+ This one adds, against all three: four weeks off for 13 days' leave
- − This one costs, against Level Crossing and Middle Ground: a weaker weekday fit

What it costs, as all three do: more late finishes and two more Saturdays a year.

What colleagues will notice

The three biggest gains and costs, per person, cover weeks aside

Likely to welcome

- More weekends off
  14 full weekends a year, not 10
- Fewer days in a row
  5 at most, not 7
- Shorter closing shifts
  every one 15 to 45 minutes shorter

Likely to worry about

- More late finishes
  94 a year at 22:00 or later, not 78
- More single rest days
  about 12 a year, not 10
- Less premium and overtime pay
  about £200 a year, gross,
  for a full share of Sundays, swaps aside

Expect late finishes and single rest days first — the colleague presentation answers both.

Where it stands

Three things settled, two decisions left, two points still open

- ✓ December rules — confirmed verbally
  Everything here is built on them; worth having in writing before a link is chosen.
- ✓ 26 people on the link — decided
  Six more than today, with five cover weeks.
- ✓ Sunday cover — confirmed verbally
  Ten on a Sunday — Sunday work stays overtime.
- ? To decide: which link we use
  After colleagues' views. Not yet through the roster office.
- ? Then: who starts on which line
  Decided after the link is chosen.

Still open: where the 13-day limit is written; how one fatigue check treats a rest day.

The detail

- Every week of the link, day by day
- Staff on duty hour by hour, against the trains
- Every December rule and fatigue check, worked through
